

Fundamentals of Travel Health for Practice Nurses

Part One: Wednesday 23rd February 2022, 2pm-5.30pm

AND

Part Two: Thursday 24th February, 2pm-5.30pm

(Attend both sessions to attain your certificate of completion)

NMBI Category One Approved - 6 NMBI CEUs

Course Content

- Running a Travel Health Clinic - Focus on Role of Dr / Nurse, Equipment, Resources required. On-going education, Documentation & Medication management.
- Risk Avoidance/ Patient Education - Focus on Food & water, Swimming, Sun, Insect bite protection, Rabies, Jet lag, Travellers' diarrhoea risks.
- Immunisation Update /Revision - Principles of immunisation. Live, non-live vaccines
- Yellow Fever, An Overview - International Health Regulation, YF Licence, Vaccine precautions.
- Pre-Travel Assessment - Focus on Single country / multiple country trips, Back-packer, Family trips, Covid-19 (Case studies and group participation).
- Travel Vaccine Schedules - Focus on common / less common travel vaccines, Interrupted schedules and the 'Last-minute' traveller.
- Vaccine Planning & Case Studies
- MCQ assessment, Questions & Answers

Main Speaker: Patricia Brady RGN (committee member of the Travel Medicine Society of Ireland).
Jane Campion RGN MHSc. Jane & Patricia have Diplomas in Tropical Nursing, RCSI and extensive experience in Travel Health.

Early booking is advised as places are limited. Fee: €120.00